SUMMARY

Our trip to Albania is in partnership with Camino Global and Alan and Ann Bryant, FBC missionaries that live in country. Team members will be conducting an English Camp for university students in Tirana and working with the students. This provides opportunities for spiritual many conversations. The English Camp is one of the best environments in which life transformation can take place. By investing in the lives of the young people of Albania, you will be influencing the next generation of believers, making the gospel known through all parts of the world. The team members are not required to have any special educational credentials other than being a fluent English speaker.

Albania is a Muslim country. The Albanian people are open to Jesus and many have put their faith in Him. Come be a part of a work where God has given FBC an opportunity to build the church of Jesus Christ in a Muslim country.

Who - We are looking for people who love Jesus. No previous mission experience is necessary. We are also looking for people who are not sure where God wants them to serve, but who feel God's tug in their heart calling them to serve him. This opportunity will provide a fun way of watching God move you from where you are to where He wants to lead you.

Health - You should be in average to good health.
