SUMMARY

The San Francisco Bay Area is home to the largest community of Afghan Americans in the USA. God is bringing people from many nations to be our neighbors so that we can share the light of the Good News with them. But, Afghan people are Muslims. They wouldn't be interested in Jesus would they? Actually, we live in a day when many Muslims from Afghanistan are turning to Jesus.

Join our team of FBC missionaries in San Francisco. They will teach you understand how to "sift" through the people you meet in search of curious Afghan people who want to know more about Jesus.

Who - We are looking for people who love Jesus. No previous mission experience is necessary. Those who want to know more about Muslim outreach or who may have never considered Muslim outreach at all are more than welcome to join the team.

Health - You should be in average to good health.
